

2017

Petersburg Community Foundation
An Affiliate of The Alaska Community Foundation

Stories of Impact

Petersburg City School District

Hands-on Learning in Marine Science

Oceanographic Sampling Equipment

A Niskin bottle collects water samples below the surface and a Secchi disk is used to measure turbidity.

The National Ocean Science Bowl team, as well as other high school students will gain an enhanced understanding of marine sciences and future career opportunities within marine science.

